

LEARN ABOUT
WHAT THE EU IS,
HOW IT WORKS
AND ITS ROLE ON THE WORLD STAGE

EU in Focus

Fall 2016

What is the EU?
Why Does It Matter?

An Introduction to the European Union

How the EU Government System Works

Nicolò Conti, NYU Florence and Unitelma Sapienza University
September 6, 6:00pm | Villa Sassetti

The History of European Integration and the Common Market

Davide Lombardo, NYU Florence
September 20, 6:00pm | Villa Sassetti

Transatlantic Trade, the Environment and Competing Interests*

Gianluca Sgueo, NYU Florence
October 3, 6:00pm | Villa Sassetti

Europe's Migration Crisis*

Evangelia Tsourdi, European University Institute
October 10, 6:00pm | Villa Sassetti

Related Programming:

Changes in Global Politics and Europe's Role
A Lectio Magistralis by Romano Prodi (NYU Florence students only)
September 26, Scuola Sant'Anna di Pisa

Europe 2050: Dialogues in London and Florence
October 7 (London), October 14 (Florence)

The EU on the Ground: Working Group and trip to Brussels

(NYU Florence students only)

Information Meeting | September 6, 6:00pm | Villa Sassetti

Review Session | October 4, 12:30-2:00pm | Villa Sassetti

Final Presentations | October 18, 6:00pm | Villa Sassetti

Trip to Brussels | October 29-November 1

To apply to be part of the working group:

Send an email to lapietra.dialogues@nyu.edu explaining what you hope to gain through your participation by Friday September 9th.

Working Group Requirements:

- Attend the introductory talks on September 6 and 20
- Attend one policy focus area talk (*) on October 3 or 10
- Contribute to team presentation of policy focus area

R.S.V.P. at lapietra.dialogues@nyu.edu or 055 5007 219